HONORING JACQUELYNN
HAWTHORNE

HON. SYDNEY KAMLAGER-DOVE
OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, March 8, 2023

Ms. KAMLAGER-DOVE. Mr. Speaker, I rise to recognize the extraordinary Jacquelyn Hawthorne, who devoted her career and life to serving the people of Los Angeles. Ms. Hawthorne constantly sought to help those around her through her public service in local government, her volunteer work in civic life, and her leadership in her church. Today, we are honoring the indelible mark she left on her family, friends, and her fellow Angelenos.

Ms. Hawthorne was a true product of Los Angeles. Growing up, she attended Los Angeles public schools, then went on to LA City College, UCLA, and Pepperdine University. Ms. Hawthorne married her college sweetheart, Addison Hawthorne. Together, they had three children: Addison, Valery, and Hillary.

Thriving in her professional life, Ms. Hawthorne worked for 28 years for Los Angeles County, where she retired as chief of the agency's Health Care Systems Development Division. Throughout her tenure, she modernized the county's Health Services and Mental Health and Public Health Departments, ensuring that crucial services could reach all Angelenos in the digital age. Through her hard work directing project managers in designing, implementing, and maintaining online systems, she became a mentor to many at the Health Department.

Ms. Hawthorne threw herself into volunteer service and community action outside of work, seeking to give back in every aspect of her life. She served as president of United Methodist Ministries and was a board member of Vision for Voices. Believing in the good that local government could do, she served on the Los Angeles Commission on Community and Family Services, was a delegate for Assembly District 55, and was a member of then-Congresswoman Karen Bass Congressional Leadership Council.

Serving and strengthening Los Angeles' Black community was of the utmost importance to Ms. Hawthorne. She was a proud life-long member of the NAACP, a founding member of the African American Public Policy Institute, and president of the Los Angeles African American Political Action Committee. Ms. Hawthorne served as a mentor and friend to countless Angelenos and inspired many to follow in her footsteps of community service.

Perhaps the strongest force in Ms. Hawthorne's life was that of her faith. She was a proud member of Crenshaw United Methodist Church, where she was a soprano in their choir. She traveled the world singing and even performed for the pope. Ms. Hawthorne's favorite scripture is ever present as we celebrate and remember her remarkable life. She was fast to recognize Micah 6:8—"And what does the Lord require of you but to do justice, to love kindness and to walk humbly with your God"—as her guiding light.

On behalf of my constituents in Los Angeles, I share my condolences to Ms. Hawthorne's daughter, her extended family, and her friends. As we recognize Ms. Hawthorne, I ask my colleagues in the House of Representatives to join me in honoring her rich life and legacy.
